

KentuckyHistoricalSociety

National History Day Summer 2013 Internship: Education Kentucky Service Corps AmeriCorps

The Kentucky Historical Society (KHS) is a state agency and membership organization that is fully accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. The KHS mission is to engage people in the exploration of the Commonwealth's diverse heritage by providing connections to the past, perspective on the present and inspiration for the future.

The intern will participate in a 300-hour internship program with the KHS education team. The intern will assist in planning, developing and presenting National History Day workshops to teachers and students. The intern will also work to develop primary source packets for teacher use in classrooms. The internship will include travel to and from the National Contest held at the University of Maryland in June where the intern will assist the Kentucky state coordinator. Training is provided at the beginning of the internship.

Requirements: Must be currently enrolled in an accredited college or university as an undergraduate (junior or senior standing) or a graduate student. Project is a minimum of 300 hours.

- Training begins in late May
- Position must be completed by Aug. 31

Required dates:

- June 8-15

This is a temporary position, with an educational voucher offered through AmeriCorps, based in Frankfort. Employee benefits are not available. Housing is not provided.

To apply, email intern application and resume to phyllis.gilman@ky.gov. No phone calls please. Equal Opportunity Employer M/F/D. The application is available at www.history.ky.gov.

To become eligible for the educational voucher offered through AmeriCorps applicants must also complete and application through Kentucky Campus Compact. Visit <http://kycompact.nku.edu/> and click the Kentucky Service Corps link.

Application deadline is Friday, March 15, 2013.

Connections. Perspective. Inspiration.